- FreeSewing (2025/11/07 10:19)

What is FreeSewing? FreeSewing is open source software to generate bespoke sewing patterns, loved by home sewers and fashion entrepreneurs alike. Industry sizing is a bunch of lies. Join the slow fashion revolution and enjoy clothes that fit you.

- Zulip (2025/11/06 12:55)

Zulip is an open source chat and collaborative software created by Jeff Arnold, Waseem Daher, Jessica McKellar, and Tim Abbott in 2012. Today, it is one of the free and open source alternatives to Slack, with over 60,000 commits contributed by over 1000 people.

- Loops (2025/11/05 09:50)

Loops was born from a simple belief: every moment has the power to inspire, connect, and create change. In a world where attention is precious and time is fleeting, we recognized the need for a platform that celebrates the art of concise storytelling. We're not just building a platform;

we're nurturing a movement. A movement that values authenticity over perfection, creativity over conformity, and community over competition. Every feature we develop, every update we release, and every decision we make is guided by our commitment to empowering creators and connecting communities worldwide.
