- Slack Content Design in the Age of AI (2026/11/02 01:26)
  As AI generates more language, content designers must ensure it builds trust and reflects human values rather than just sounding human.
- Why AI hasn’t replaced software engineers, and won’t (2026/10/24 14:03)
  Software development bottlenecks lie not in code writing but in decision-making, accountability, and deep contextual understanding that AI cannot yet replace.
- Beyond “good men” (2026/10/24 13:59)
  The essay critiques how society expects little from men while burdening women with endless safety precautions and responsibilities.
- How PM Work Is Changing in the AI Era (2026/10/24 13:42)
  PMs are shifting from hands-on engineering toward defining product vision, principles, and success metrics while AI agents handle implementation details.
